

I will not be silent

As a sign of solidarity with the Jewish people and in recognition of their and other victim's sufferings due to the Holocaust under the Nazis and collaborators in World War II; as well as the sacrifice of faithful Christians who died or risked all to protect them, we invite you to send a delegation of 10 or more from your organization. Please consider including youth and/or young adults who will carry forward the testimony to their generation, to formally represent you in one of the Greater Houston Area Marches of Remembrance. The March of Remembrance is an annual memorial service and walk on Holocaust Remembrance Day every year in late April or early May.
